

2015 ROTARY PEACE FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

What is the Rotary Peace Fellowship?

The Rotary Peace Fellowship is the premier academic scholarship of The Rotary Foundation and supports Rotary’s mission to empower, educate, and increase the capacity of peace builders through rigorous academic training, practice, and global networking opportunities. Through this experience, Rotary Peace Fellows build the skills needed to act as leaders and catalysts for peace and conflict resolution both in their communities and around the globe.

The fellowship is intended for individuals who have chosen a career related to international relations, peace, and conflict resolution; who have work experience in these areas; and who have a commitment to community or international humanitarian service and working for peace. Applicants should consider these objectives carefully before applying. Two types of fellowships are offered: a master’s degree program and professional development certificate program.

What are the differences between the two programs?

Fellowship Program	Master’s Degree	Professional Development Certificate

Rotary Peace Centers	5	1

* Proficiency in English is required for all centers. While proof of proficiency in a second language is not required, you are highly encouraged to list second language proficiency in the Summary of Language Ability section.

 Applicants to the joint Rotary Peace Center at Duke-UNC are strongly encouraged to submit GRE scores as this will increase their competitive chances regardless of university preference. Applicants to UNC must check each graduate school department's individual score requirements. Applicants to the Master in Public Health program may be exempt if they hold an MD.

Applicants may submit either IELTS or TOEFL results; submitting both is not required for all centers.

Rotary Peace Centers Preference

Details on the curriculum and programs at each Rotary Peace Center are available at www.rotary.org/rotarycenters. You are expected to have thoroughly researched these centers to determine the suitability of their programs of study and admission criteria before completing this application. Please rank the centers in order of preference by writing "1" in the blank before your first choice, "2" before your second choice, and "3" before your third choice. When ranking the centers, please be mindful of the following restrictions:

- You must be proficient in English. Although not mandatory, ability in a second language other than English is preferred and demonstrates a commitment to intercultural work. If you are applying for the master's degree program at universities where your native language is spoken, it is preferred that you are also proficient in a second language. Note: Coursework at International Christian University (Tokyo) may be taken in English, with Japanese-language training provided where necessary; coursework at the Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University is conducted entirely in English.
- You may not attend a center in your home country or country of permanent residence, with the exception of Thai citizens or residents of Thailand who are interested in attending the Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University and Japanese citizens or residents of Japan who have completed a course of study outside Japan and are interested in attending the Rotary Peace Center at International Christian University.
- You cannot request assignment to a university where you will already be enrolled before the fellowship year. Fellows who begin studies at their assigned university before their fellowship term forfeit their awards.
- Fellows must begin their studies as specified by their assigned Rotary Peace Center:
Master's degree: July, August, or September 2015 (Northern Hemisphere); February or March 2016 (Southern Hemisphere)
Professional development certificate: January and June each year
- If you are selected for a Rotary Peace Fellowship, it will be your responsibility to apply directly and gain admission to the degree program of the assigned Rotary Peace Center university partner immediately following notification of the award. Failure to gain admission will nullify your fellowship. Selection by Rotary does not guarantee admission to the desired university degree program. Admission to one of the university partners before the fellowship competition does not guarantee your selection as a Rotary Peace Fellow. Rotary Peace Fellows assigned to the Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University are exempt from these requirements.

Please indicate your preference for either the short-term professional development certificate program or the master's degree program. Candidates will not be considered for both.

Not all master's degree programs at Rotary Peace Center partner universities are eligible for the fellowship. If you have questions about the eligibility of a specific program, please contact the applicable Rotary Peace Center.

Apply Through a Local Rotary Club

You must submit your application and all supplementary materials to a Rotary club, preferably a club near your legal or permanent place of residence, full-time study, or employment. Application deadlines vary by club, so you must contact the club before you complete the application. Use the Rotary Club Finder at rotary.org to find a club in your area.

Applicants cannot apply directly to The Rotary Foundation or to a Rotary Peace Center. You must apply through a Rotary district. If you are having difficulty finding a local club or district, email rotarypeacecenters@rotary.org.

You should be prepared for personal interviews, which may be conducted by the Rotary club or district. Each Rotary district may forward as many applications as it deems qualified to The Rotary Foundation for consideration in a world-competitive selection process.
